

Number of financial institutions across California

As of March 26, 2014.
 Number of financial institutions includes central banks, credit intermediaries and firms in the industries of securities, commodity contracts, and other financial investments and related activities, provided by the North American Industry Classification System as of July 2012.

Source: SNL Financial
 Map credit: Whit Varner